Location: Shishmaref
Type: Search and Rescue

On June 2, 2021, at approximately 3:50 p.m. hours Alaska State Troopers received a report that a snow machine had fallen through the ice, near Shishmaref. After an investigation, it was determined that 32-year-old Shishmaref resident Bert lyatunguk was reportedly operating a snow machine with a passenger and attempting to run his snowmachine across an open channel of water near Shishmaref Lagoon. The snowmachine sunk in the open water. The passenger was able to swim to shore, but lyatunguk was not visible in the open water. The Shishmaref VPSO and community members immediately began searching the water and located lyatunguk in the water at approximately 4:35 p.m.. Lifesaving efforts were made and lyatunguk was transported to the Shishmaref Clinic where he was pronounced deceased.

The remains will be transported to the State Medical Examiner. Next of kin have been notified.

half of the speakers of the language are in the U.S. where we use the Roman alphabet and the other half is in Russian Far East and use the Cyrillic alphabet. This is one thing that attracted Dave to this language since his parents were from Russian ancestors and Russian was spoken in his childhood home. That basic knowledge benefited the Shimens later as they worked on getting the translation in to the Cyrillic alphabet.

(Mike) Lundeen, and Dorothy Brewer, as well as three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Dave wholeheartedly loved the Lord, he loved God's Word, he loved his wife of nearly 67 years and his family. God's grace was a guideline for his interactions with people. He believed that we are all fellow strugglers and treated people with love, dignity and respect. Dave was regarded as a father-figure and a counselor to many, investing himself in the lives of others. He was quick to go to the Bible where truth and wisdom can be found for every life situation. He was a man of integrity, consistent and trustworthy. He maintained a humble heart throughout his life-calling, pointing to God first and giving Him the glory for any victory or accomplishment.

Dave will be missed by his family and friends and remembered for his creative mind and sense of humor. We grieve his loss but not without the confidence of seeing him again.

There will be a Celebration of Life Service at 2 p.m. on July 20, 2021 at SW Bible Church, 14605 SW Weir Rd, Beaverton, OR 97007. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to Wycliffe Bible Translators, PO Box 628211, Orlando, FL 32862-8211.
